

The Sino-British College, University of Shanghai for Science and Technology

The Sino-British College was established in 2006 as a result of an innovative collaboration between University of Shanghai for Science and Technology (USST) and 9 top UK universities. It combines the best of Chinese and British education in one of the world's leading cities making it a truly international university college.

Students at SBC have a unique opportunity to start their degree in China but complete their degree in the UK. With regard to Business Management students can go to 9 different UK universities after completing their initial studies at SBC. Just under half of SBC students transfer to Leeds University or Sheffield University, both members of the prestigious Russell Group, after completing SBC first and second years. There are many different business programs that students can complete at our partner universities.

SBC as a whole is a British University College in Shanghai that offers degree courses in Business and Engineering. As an institution we are owned by nine UK universities and one Chinese university. These are:

- University of Bradford
- University of Huddersfield
- University of Leeds
- Leeds Beckett University
- Liverpool John Moores University
- Manchester Metropolitan University
- University of Salford
- University of Sheffield
- Sheffield Hallam University
- University of Shanghai for Science and Technology (USST)

Our courses are delivered either entirely in Shanghai or part in Shanghai and part in the United Kingdom. SBC's programs are considered pathways. Our most popular pathways are 1+3, 2+2, 3+1 and 4+0. A 1+3 stands for one year in Shanghai and three years in UK; a 2+2 would
